

God's Word
2 Timothy 3:16-17 / Psalm 119:105

Personal Discussion Questions:

1. How has your approach to reading and studying the Bible changed over time? Have you ever treated it like an "owner's manual," "textbook," or "Magic 8 Ball"? Pray about your experiences and reflections.
2. Can you think of a specific instance when engaging with the scriptures corrected or aligned you with God's intentions? How do you respond to the discomfort of being rebuked or corrected by the Bible?
3. In what ways do you believe the Bible equips believers for every good work?
4. In what areas of your life do you currently feel surrounded by darkness or confusion? How might committing to daily Bible reading, especially using the S.O.A.P. method, help illuminate your path and guide you through these challenges?

"I will give you the keys
of the kingdom of heaven,
and whatever you bind on earth
will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven."
